

ISRAEL ON FINE ARTS

A sensitive solo exhibition is brought forward by a Brazilian-born Israeli artist. – The General Consulate of Israel in Brazil and “Associação Hebraica de São Paulo” presents the Exhibition “Far Away – So Close”, shown by Deborah Wasserman, opening on August 29th at 08:00 p.m., at the Social Hall of “La Hebraica, La Galleria”, located at Rua Hungria, 1000.

The same Exhibition was held up to September 17 at “A Hebraica” Art Gallery, at the same address mentioned above.

Deborah herself describes her creation as being eclectic... “I gather and absorb the external impressions, but most of my work is focused on putting away my internal world, which is composed of endless narratives, dead ends, excerpts of memories, fantasies and emotions”... my paintings have been influenced by the projection of the temporal film of my (our) life.

As a matter of fact, Deborah’s drawings demonstrate a profound connection with the environment as being the mixture of Islamism and Judaism which coexists to the full in Jaffa, where her studio is currently located.
